Editorial Policy

- Articles submitted to JAMRIS must have not been published previously elsewhere.

- The article can be submitted either via JAMRIS’s online system (preferred) or via e-mail at office@jamris.org.

- Each manuscript is evaluated by Editorial Board and Reviewers. The decision about the publication and its term is taken by the Editor-in-Chief. However, Editor-in-Chief takes Reviewers’ opinion into consideration very seriously, he may rejected an article (in agreement with Editorial Board).

- Figures or tables that have been published elsewhere must be identified (on the rights of quote).

- All authors, members, referees, and editors must disclose any association that poses a conflict of interest in connection with the manuscript. Authors must acknowledge all funding sources supporting the work.

- The author is/are only person(s) who has/have contributed to the work described in the paper substantially.

- Name of the reviewers are not revealed in any case. An author never knows who reviewed his or her manuscript.

- A review is always written, and it is not completely shown to the author (he or she can only receive a list of changes demanded and the final editor-in-chief’s decision).

- A completed copyright form should be sent to Journal of Automation, Mobile Robotic and Intelligent Systems is available at www.jamris.org. Copyright form must be sent to the JAMRIS Editorial Office before the paper will be published (however, author need not to send this form before acceptance to publishing; but the paper will not be published without this agreement).

- The paper sent to JAMRIS must include: full names of all authors, keywords and abstract, acknowledgements and information about financial support (if necessary).

- Every manuscript submitted to JAMRIS is reviewed by minimum two independent reviewers.

- Complete content of JAMRIS is published also at the website www.jamris.org.
